MISSION

Los Angeles Harbor College fosters learning through comprehensive programs that meet the educational needs of the community as measured by student success, personal and institutional accountability, and integrity.
The official processes of College governance and planning provide for the widest possible participation.

Hint: It meets the 2nd & 4th Mondays @ 1:30
The College’s most promising tool for ensuring that its offerings fit its stated mission.
For each 16-18 hours of lecture, one unit credit is granted; for each 32-36 hours of laboratory with homework each semester, one unit credit is granted—based upon this system of measurement.
STUDENT LEARNING & SUPPORT PROGRAMS

A series of courses that community college students can use to satisfy lower division general education requirements at any CSU or UC campus
Three letters referring to the number of full-time faculty determined by the state.
Number of Union Agreements in the Los Angeles Community College District.

[BONUS: Name the Unions]
LEADERSHIP & SHARED GOVERNANCE

Long before AB 1725 formally provided for shared governance, Harbor College’s Faculty Senate was one of the first in the state when they formed in this year.
LEADERSHIP & SHARED GOVERNANCE

Holding committee meetings to the shortest time possible.
Helps faculty, administrative, staff, and student leaders navigate district wide governance and decision-making processes more effectively.
