Your Work

1. In-class Quizzes & Attendance

Attendance in class is mandatory and students leaving early or coming late will not receive full points for attendance.

In-class pop-up quizzes will be from the topic(s) that we discussed during class time. It is your responsibility to cover the materials that you missed. No make-up quizzes will be given.

2. Chapter Test and Examination

A total of 5 Chapter tests and a Mid-term and a Final exam are given. No make-up test or exams will be given.

3. Homework Assignments

A total of 7 homework assignments will be assigned. Homework will be primarily taken from the textbook and workbook. The contents of the homework assignments will be announced during class. Late submissions will be allowed within 2 weeks, and up to 2 times.

4. Oral test

A total of 3 oral tests are given besides the final project.

5. Final project

You can choose your topic from the following. You need to get an approval by November 24th:

- Japanese song presentation (transcribe and memorize one chorus of the lyrics)
- Japanese comic strip presentation (create comic strips which include at least 10 meaningful sentences in Japanese along with graphics)
- Japanese children book presentations (choose a story and memorize at least 10 sentences)
- Skit presentation (choose your partner and present. The contents should not be the same as the oral test materials)
- Students are also required to give evaluations on others' performances.

Emergency Policy and Scale

Please take note of the safety features in and around the classroom. Also study the posted evacuation routines. The most direct route of egress may not be the safest. Similarly, running out of the building during the earthquakes may be dangerous. During a strong earthquake the recommended response is to duck-cover-hold until the shaking stops. Follow the guidance of your instructor. Your cooperation during emergencies can minimize the possibility of injury to yourself and others.
