

Mr. Brad Brown, a L A Harbor College Nursing Graduate, began as the Sim Lab Coordinator and Clinical Faculty in 2005. He earned his BSN in 1999 from the University of Phoenix. Mr. Brown has many years of experience and remains active as in Emergency Nursing. Sometimes referred to as the Ambassador, he has held various nursing and hospital leadership positions in the South Bay over the past 18 years. Additionally he served as the principle instructor and program director for the EMT Program at So Cal ROC for five years in the 1980's.