

General Simulation Student Learning Objectives:

Students participating in a simulation experience will:

1. Apply clinical decision making in interpreting and analyzing data,
2. Consider, time management, cost, ethical and legal implication of patient situation as appropriate,
3. Prioritize patient care needs,
4. Practice within the scope of the registered nursing profession,
5. Provide care to patients utilizing principles of safety,
6. Communicate patient status to health care providers effectively (using SBAR),
7. Communicate effectively with patient, family, and supportive persons (including teaching).

At expected course behavioral level.