VIII. ADVISOR REPORT (10 minutes)

Gary Gonzales thanked everyone for their nominations and the new positions. He wants senators to start filling out more bill forms. He reminds the groups about a Parli Pro training on Friday October 3, 2014 from 9-3 at LA Trade Tech; they will charge us whether students sign up to go or not. He also explains the Millennium Momentum Foundation and the great opportunity is it for students and about CCCSAA and what it stands for. Gonzales also announces that a few students will be dressing up at the mascot for this upcoming football game and is encouraging students to support.

IX. EXECUTIVE OFFICER REPORTS (5 minutes per officer):

Avery Bivinetto talks about going to the S-Riggs meeting and learning how community colleges work. He wants senators interested in receiving ICC emails to contact him. He lost his phone, so if you need to contact him, you should do so on Facebook. He also further explains why he might be leaving in the spring to attend USC due to family issues. Marco Maruffo talks more about the S-Riggs and says it regulates all of the LA 9 colleges. He also talks more about the shared governance document that he typed up earlier that day. Daniel Ly had to leave early to attend the budget meeting and had nothing to report. Emily McNabb reminds everyone to turn in club packets as soon as possible so the members can be checked and that Wednesday at 1PM is the deadline to turn papers in to her if you want them on the next ASO agenda.

X. UNFINISHED BUSINESS: There is no unfinished business to discuss

XI. NEW BUSINESS (Action may be taken):
   a) CCCSAA Leadership Conference: (Lemberger) [$5,975] With no objections, there was a unanimous vote by the above voting members above to approve the bill.
   b) Millennium Momentum Foundation: Gonzales and McNabb explain that this is a great opportunity for committed students and that they should talk to us if they have any further questions.
   c) Adopting the Women’s Volleyball and Women’s Basketball Team: Bivinetto discusses the ASO adopting these 2 teams along with the other clubs, and with some discussion Bivinetto moves to pass this item and Senator Amisone 2nds. Unanimous vote by the above voting members above to pass this motion.
   d) ASO Elections:
      - EFC Representative: The nominees were Lyzette Perez and Lucy Alonso. The winner with a 6 to 3 vote was Lyzette Perez.
      - ICC Representative: The nominee was Daniel Rico and the winner was Daniel Rico.
      - Pro Tempore: The nominees were Elizabeth Him, Kiley Perkins, and Andrew Macias. The winner with a 5 to 6 to 2 vote was Kiley Perkins.
      - Historian: The nominee was Alma Giles and the winner was Alma Giles.
   e) Advertising Committee: This would be a school wide committee for advertising. The chair of this committee is senator Amisone with senator Giles and Monroy helping. Bivinetto also adds that the committee who is handling the LAHC birthday bash should be turned into the advertising committee.
   f) Bylaws and Constitution Committee: Bivinetto would like to update the bylaws and constitution that ASO has. The senators that volunteered to help him were Perkins, Giles, Him, Chase, Baeza, and Maruffo.

XII. SENATE PROJECTS: There was nothing to report.

XIII. COMMITTEE REPORTS: LAHC Birthday Bash: (Ad hawk) [Amisone, Alonso, and Perez] They are planning to have the event on Wednesday October 15, 2014, but are still waiting for Gonzales to give the official date. The committee also wanted to have cupcakes this year instead of a cake to feed more people quickly. The decorations, music, games, give away, and performers are still being discussed. There was talk of admiration for the effort being put into this event.

XIV. SHARED GOVERNANCE: (3 minutes) Senator Baeza, Perez, and Him all attended the same Academic Senate meeting and said there was talk of the Harbor Advantage and how it is expanding. There was also discussion about the computer science program on campus and how it might be stopped soon because of an issue with having 60 units.

XV. INFORMATION ITEMS: Senator Rico announced that the Criminal Justice Club will be holding a canned food drive from October 15-16, 2014 from 9-3 and a toy drive from December 3-4, 2014 from 9-3.

XVI. ADJOURNMENT: 3:03
