EOPS Book Award Information

- Check the book award lists (posted online on the EOPS website under ‘Latest News’) for the last 4 digits of your SID # and your initials (scroll down, there are multiple pages).
- If you are a continuing EOPS student, do not assume because you received a book award in previous semesters that you will be receiving one this semester. You must check all the lists, including the lists for ineligible students, probation students, and students who are over 70 units, to determine your eligibility status for a book award. Also remember that it is your responsibility to sign up for the book award each semester. Only if you appear on an eligible list will you know that you have received a book award.
- If you are not identified on any eligible list and you are a new EOPS student, please keep checking for updated lists as your award hasn’t been processed yet.
- If your name is on the eligible book award list, you will be receiving a credit in the bookstore for the amount indicated. On or after the date and time indicated below the list you appear on, take your picture ID and your official registration printout (from the Cashier’s Office) to the bookstore. At the bookstore cashier, let them know you’re an EOPS student receiving a book award.
- The absolute earliest your book award will be available to use at the bookstore is the first day of classes. Due to delays in processing, your book award may not be available by this date.
- If your name is on the ineligible book award list, please inquire in the EOPS Office to determine if you can appeal this decision. Being ineligible for a book award does not necessarily exit you from the program.
- If you are on the EOPS Probation List or Exceeded Program Limits list you will need to complete a workshop and/or appeal to become eligible (please check with the EOPS Office for details).
- You won’t be eligible to receive your book award until you return all books you borrowed from a previous semester.
- You can only use your book award to purchase books. Supplies are available in the EOPS office.
- You can only use your book award in the bookstore. It is non-transferrable. You must use it by the deadline posted on the list.
- If there is any reason why you cannot use your book award by the deadline, you must notify Tim in the EOPS office before the deadline.
- If you receive a book award amount less than the full amount, please remember the following:
  - Book award amounts are based on the number of units you’re enrolled in for the semester
  - Missing one or more contacts from the previous semester results in a reduced book award
  - Having 2 or more no-shows from the previous semester results in a reduced book award
  - Not completing a workshop or submitting a progress report may result in a reduced award
- Your book award cannot be held or carried over to another semester or year. Any unused portion of your book award is returned to us and redistributed.
