On Wednesday, February 28, 2018, the Umoja Community program and the Associated Students Organization of LA Harbor College co-hosted the 2018 Black History and Culture Showcase in honor of Black History Month. The event featured original poetry, Black history trivia, musical and other artistic student performances. We would like to thank the Associated Students Organization for partnering with us. We would also like to give a very special thanks to all the students who volunteered and performed this year. We are honored to have you as members of our community! Finally, we would like to thank all the administrators, faculty, and staff who helped make this event a success: Vice President Luis Dorado, Dean Dawn Reid, Mary Vargas, Andy Labrune, Lori Minor, Anjanette Crum, Jose Luna, Gary Gonzales, Joy Fisher, and Mary Copeland.

The Umoja Community at LA Harbor College

Umoja is a community and critical resource dedicated to enhancing the cultural and educational experiences of African American and other students. We believe that when the voices and histories of students are deliberately and intentionally recognized, the opportunity for self-efficacy emerges and a foundation is formed for academic success. Umoja actively serves and promotes student success for all students through a curriculum and pedagogy responsive to the legacy of the African and African American Diasporas.

What does Umoja mean?

“Umoja” is a Kiswahili word meaning unity. Kiswahili (also known as Swahili) has the largest number of speakers of all estimated 250 - 535 Narrow Bantu languages. These languages are spoken largely in regions commonly known as Central Africa, Southeastern Africa, and Southern Africa. “Umoja Habari” means Unity News.

Featured Umoja Students

Zsoveonne Mitchell

Zsoveonne is graduating this Spring with an Associates Degree for Transfer (AD-T) in Studio Art. When asked how the Umoja program has impacted his experience at LA Harbor College he said, "I had been going to Harbor for years and only completed about 7 units on average per year. Through the Umoja program I learned about the PACE program and that changed my life. The Umoja conference workshops also helped me learn how to be a better leader." Zsoveonne has been accepted into numerous 4 year universities including San Francisco State, CSU Monterey Bay, UC Davis, and UC Santa Barbara.

Camille Cooksey

Camille was recruited from Gardena High School by the Umoja program in Spring 2017. She is a first year student who is interested in biological sciences. When asked what the Umoja program means to her she says, "The reason why I was so excited to be a part of the program is because we need more programs like this to share knowledge.....it shows diversity and that we can all come together. I like that the program is open to people of all races. Umoja makes me happy. It makes me feel like I can do something with myself. African Americans go through a lot. This program gives us hope."
