Classified Staff Lead The Way

Leadership begins with a fundamental respect and a desire to serve. There's more to leading than just being in charge and you will find many leaders amongst the classified ranks at Harbor College.

Politician and teacher Jackie Goldberg says, "If you inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more, become more, YOU are a leader."

Classified Staff serve as role models, teachers, mentors, counselors, and even friends to our students, peers and faculty alike.

"It's not about position," say book authors Irvine and Reger, "It's about PRESENCE." But don't take our word for it, read on...

A GREAT LEADER...

is a servant * is confident and secure * puts ego and power aside * gives credit where credit is due * is teachable and accountable * respects people * shows the way * trusts themselves and the people they lead * knows people have feelings, needs & concerns * does not manipulate * seeks clarity * simply cares

"If you think you're leading and no one is following, you're just taking a walk!"
