

9th Annual LACCD disABILITY SUMMIT 2023

Theme: Learning disability

Friday,
October 27th, 2023

8:00am to 2:30pm.
Registration begins 8:00am.

Continental breakfast and lunch provided

LA Harbor College
Theater

Keynote Speaker Jonathan Mooney

A nationally recognized advocate for neurological and physical diversity, he has published three books: The Short Bus, Learning Outside the Lines, and Normal Sucks.

This presentation will be titled "Normal Sucks" will include the following segments:

- Reframe the problem: Different isn't Deficient
- Accommodate: Change the environment not the person
- Challenge the Deficit model: focus on strengths

RSVP

at: bit.ly/3qyUQRN

Administrators, faculty and staff are encouraged to attend.

Public Accommodation:

If you need to request an accommodation such as printed information in alternate formats, Assistive Listening Devices, or request a Sign Language Interpreter, please contact Adrian Gonzalez, 818.833.3313 or gonzala@laccd.edu.

Opening remarks Francisco C. Rodriguez, Ph.D. Chancellor Los Angeles Community College District

Flex Credit for Faculty Training is Available

Keynote Speaker Araksya Arutyunyan, PsyD

Dr. Araksya Arutyunyan is a Licensed Clinical Psychologist specializing in evaluating and working with neurodivergent youth. Currently, Dr. Araksya is the Learning Disability Specialist at LAVC.

Dr. Araksya will provide an overview of what Learning Disabilities are in general, from a neurodiversity perspective, and what they look like on our campuses.

She will also recommend practical ways we can support students who struggle with Learning "Differences" focusing on Universal Design.